

Contents - Issue 10 November 2006

Page 3 Designer Profile

We introduce you to Janie Hubble from The Cat's Whiskers Design Studio. She has designed us a lovely Fairy Wren box top.

Page 7 Product Profile and Competition

Beautiful hand crafted Jarrah boxes from Australia. These have been designed especially for a cross stitch to be inserted into the lid.

Page 8 With My Grandmother's Hands

Kirsten Edwards discovers that the craft of rag rug making is still alive and well. Join us as we research this thrifty craft in Australasian history. This column also includes Part 2 of The Sime Scottish Sampler.

Page 12 Schoolgirl Sampler Building Series

This month we have a Victorian brown brick home, complete with a tree and blackbirds.

Page 13 Mystery Series

Part three of Li'l Christmas Angels by Pine Glen Designs. This one will brighten your tree.

Page 15 All Things Counted

We explore the craft of Cartonnage and how French stitchers combine it with cross stitch. Learn the craft with our cross stitch notions box. Full instructions provided.

Page 20 Feature Pattern

Night Before Christmas Scrapbook by Sandy Orton of Kooler Design Studios.

Page 31 From Test-Tubes to Chart-Packs

Jacinta Lodge discovers that starting a cross stitch business can be testing on your emotions.

Page 32 Stitchalicious

Jacinta Lodge shares her first published design with us - Angel, Baby! A great project to teach cross stitch to someone younger.

Page 33 Blackwork by Lynne Herzberg

Lynne has graciously given us two designs this month. Joy Abounds and 123 Snowman.

Page 35 Hugs from Six Strand Sweets and Dragonfly Stitches.

A quick fun stitch with a lovely sentiment.

Page 36 Stitch Diagrams

