

Contents - Issue 11 December 2006

Page 3

Christmas Ornaments 2006

13 designers from this year's issue have designed an ornament each. From whimsical to hardanger, you'll love the selection.

Page 21

All Things Counted

Readers share their stories about Christmas and cross stitch. Included are two charity stories.

Page 24

Mystery Series

Part four of Li'l Christmas Angels by Pine Glen Designs - Li'l Merry Angel.

Page 26

Your Shopping List

All the threads and fabric from the projects in this issue listed in one convenient place.

Page 27

Product Profile and Competition

We are giving away a product pack from Tokens and Trifles. High quality paper products for stitching. Also three ornaments to stitch from their 2005 Kugals range.

Page 30

Feature Pattern

Set of four Quaker Ornaments by Olde Willow Stitchery Threads, Inc.

Page 33

Linen & Hoop by Beth K. Hendzlik

A primitive bear to stitch and make for the Christmas season.

Page 35

From Test-Tubes to Chart-Packs

Jacinta Lodge takes a plane ride home and learns a little wisdom from the movies!

Page 36

Stitchalicious

A set of three retro designs in pastel colours. We have finished them for the festive season using scrapbooking paper.

Page 38

Dutch Sampler Scissor Keeper

Inspired by a Dutch sampler, this scissor keeper looks so pretty in shades of green and yellow hand dyed silk.

Page 40

Blackwork by Lynne Herzberg

Poinsettia and Laced Star - two blackwork Christmas ornaments.

Page 42

Stitch Diagrams

Page 43

Stockists and Final Word

